

Local News

Published: Friday, April 16, 2010

“Lemon Drop” by Claudia Postema

By Theresa Goffredo
Herald Writer

Marc Wise wants people to walk the walk.

That would be the Everett Art Walk, which starts up again this weekend and showcases 10 galleries in the greater Everett area.

Wise, one of the owners of WiseDesignz on Wetmore, has been a vocal promoter of the Everett Art Walk, a free event that he said keeps the town vibrant.

Claudia Postema is one of the featured artists on the art walk.

Postema is known for her larger-than-life florals. She works in watercolors and mixed-media collage. Her work is on display in “Morph Into Expression.” Visitors on the art walk can meet Postema during a reception from 4 to 7 p.m. Saturday at WiseDesignz, 2908 Wetmore Ave., Everett.

For a complete list of other galleries and studios open during Saturday’s art walk, which runs from 4 to 7 p.m., go to www.everettartwalk.org.